CIRCULAR NOTE 0061

CONCERNING THE MANAGEMENT OF THE ELECTRONIC CARGO TRACKING NOTE FOR THE ACCOUNT OF THE GUINEA SHIPPERS COUNCIL

Shippers, Transporters, Shipping Agents, Stevedores, Consignees are informed that as from the 08 May 2023, the company System First Guinea (SFG) through its international agent International Shippers Documentation (ISD) is in charge of the Electronic Cargo tracking Note (ECTN) management in import and export of the Republic of Guinea for the account of the Guinea Shippers Council (CGC) in conformity with the convention n° 2023/002/CC dated 15 April 2015 giving the mandate for the management of the Electronic Cargo Tracking Note (ECTN).

Therefore, as from the 08 May 2023, a time limit of fifteen (15) days is given the port actors indicated here above to ensure that cargo destined to the Republic of Guinea are covered by the ECTN, of which the number must be indicated on the Bill of Lading.

Also, retroactivity of this activity is given to the company SFG to consider the activities since the 08 March 2023, termination notification date given to the previous operator.

The ECTN must be validated by SFG and/or its representatives in the loading ports as per procedures in force.

Same regime applies for export cargo from the Republic of Guinea.

After this time limit, any cargo not covered by an ECTN will be subject to a regularisation by the issuance of a ECTN at destination to the debit of the defaulting transporter and/or its representative at the port of loading with a penalty of 50% of the tariff in force plus the cost of the ECTN.

Shippers or their representatives must, for any cargo shipped to and from the Republic of Guinea, issue and validate du SFG and/or its representatives an Electronic Cargo tracking Note which forms are available on the web site www.bescguinee.com.

Any breach to the prescriptions of the present circular note will be sanctioned as per regulation in force.

The present circular note modifies all previous contrary regulations and becomes effective at its date of signature.
